

London Devilettes, Continued

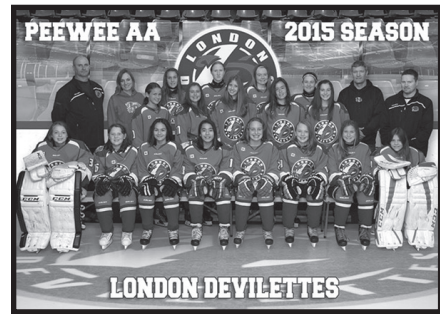

known the excitement of being a Devilette! One such mom-daughter pair is Carolyn Roy, Head Coach of her daughter Parker's Novice A team. Roy played for the Devilettes from 1992-2000 and for the Junior Stangs (now known as the Junior Devilettes) from 2000-2001. She went on to play hockey for Plattsburgh State University from 2001-2005 and was awarded NCAA All-American in 2004 and 2005 and ECAC Goalie of the Year in 2004. She played in the Frozen Four in both the 2003-2004 and 2004-2005 seasons. In addition to coaching her daughter's Devilette team this year, Roy serves on the Board of Directors of the London Devilettes and provides all goalie development for the Devilettes competitive teams.

Playing hockey for girls has so many benefits to their personal development and growth, from overall fitness to forming lasting friendships and developing self-confidence to a sense of pride in being part of a team in a competitive, fun environment full of music, laughter, camaraderie, and cheer!

Does your daughter want to become part of this female hockey tradition in London? For more information on how to become a Devilette, visit www.londondevilettes.ca.
